Guidelines / Instructions

a. Notification of voters list:

The current list of members duly authenticated by BMA who are eligible to vote shall be kept open at No. 207, Blue Cross Chambers, Infantry Road Cross, Bangalore – 560 001 on all working days from 10.30 a.m. to 04.00 p.m and also displayed at the Notice Board of BMA office for the perusal of members and also displayed in BMA Website : <https://bmabangalore.org/>

b. Notification of Annual Election:

The calendar of events for the BMA election for the year 2026–27 is being notified and communicated to members to file their nominations. It has been decided by the BMA MC Members that all communications regarding the election, such as notices, shall be sent by the BMA office through the email address officially provided by the members to the BMA. This decision has been taken in view of the difficulties faced by committee members in not being able to receive, as well as delays due to physical posts in the past. Further, there shall be a display of all notifications in the BMA Office notice Board at the said above address as well as in BMA's Official Website : <https://bmabangalore.org/>

c. Filling of Nominations:

The nominations shall be filed in the prescribed forms only.

As per the BMA Rules B16.1, nominations for election to the Management Committee shall be in the prescribed form, duly proposed by one member and seconded by two members of the same or higher category and shall have the consent of the members to stand for election. The nomination shall be in a sealed envelope addressed to the Returning Officer, BMA Elections 2026-27. While signing the nomination form, the members shall indicate their Name and ID No. Nominations without the name and ID No. of members shall not be accepted.

- i) The Nomination papers to be filed by the candidate shall ensure signatures of one proposer and seconded by two members of BMA / AIMA. In case of the Life / Professional AIMA category of the candidate, it has to be accompanied by the bio-data in brief as per Annexure-II.
- ii) The Institutional Member Nominees shall give their consent to be on the Managing Committee (2026-27) if elected. The Nomination form shall be affixed with the Official seal/stamp of the institution with the full address.
- iii) The nominations/withdrawals sent by fax / e-mails shall not be considered.
- iv) Separate nomination papers must be filled for each member category as per the election guidelines. The nomination papers, which are incorrect/incomplete, are liable to be rejected.

- v) While filling the nominations as the candidate for election, the following conditions shall be observed to qualify for nomination and voting:- The electoral roll for Annual Elections of BMA shall be as per the list of members, as on the last date for filing nominations for the elections.
- Members shall file nominations for election for a seat on the Managing Committee only from the category of their membership listed.
 - In case a person/member has eligibility to contest for more than one seat, such a member shall file nominations from different categories. Ultimately, such a person/member should retain nomination only for one category and withdraw his / her nominations from other categories, on or before the last date of withdrawal of nominations. If any person/member retains the nomination in more than one category, all the nominations of such person/member shall become invalid or rejected.
 - All members submitting nomination forms for contesting, election, and also those members who are proposers and seconders shall furnish correct information and details. Any incorrect and false information shall make the nominations summarily rejected.

d. Submission of Nomination Forms :

BMA prescribes that the nominations on the prescribed form shall be in a sealed envelope addressed and sent to the Returning Officer, BMA Elections 2026 – 27 at (No. 207, Blue Cross Chambers, Infantry Road Cross, Bangalore – 560 001) and submitted, between 10.00 a. m. to 04:00 p. m. on all working days during the stipulated period, and the Returning Officer shall not be responsible for the non- receipt of nominations, within the prescribed time and date as per calendar of the events.
